Synopsis

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a vibrant and fast-paced musical retelling of the biblical story of Joseph, set to a varied mix of musical styles. With lyrics by Tim Rice and music by Andrew Lloyd Webber, this show is packed with catchy songs, lively dance numbers and plenty of humour.

Our story begins as Joseph, the favourite son of Jacob, is gifted a magnificent multi-coloured coat, symbolising his father's special affection. However, his eleven jealous brothers resent Joseph's status and his prophetic dreams, which suggest he is destined for greatness. In a fit of envy, they conspire against him, setting off a chain of events that leads Joseph from his home in Canaan to the land of Egypt.

Despite facing betrayal and hardship, Joseph's extraordinary ability to interpret dreams catches the attention of the mighty Pharaoh, who sees potential in the young dreamer. As Joseph rises through the ranks, his wisdom and resilience are put to the test. Meanwhile, back home in Canaan his brothers face their own struggles, unaware that their past actions may come full circle in a very unexpected way.

Filled with unforgettable songs like Any Dream Will Do, Close Every Door, and Go, Go, Go Joseph, this dazzling musical is a celebration of perseverance, forgiveness, and the power of dreams.

Meet the Cast

This is Liam's third production with Kilmacud Musical Society. He is thrilled to be playing the role of Joseph in this year's show—a role he has dreamed of taking on since he was a child. Over the years, Liam has performed as TJ in KMS' production of Sister Act and appeared in roles such as Curly in Oklahoma! with other societies. Having studied Arts with Theatre & Performance, Liam brings his studies and passion to every role. When he's not performing, he shares his creative journey on TikTok, where you can follow him at @LiamMackessy. He extends heartfelt thanks to the incredible cast, crew, and committee for their dedication and effort in bringing this amazing show to life.

Aisling is delighted to play the Narrator in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. A proud member for 13 years, she's grateful for the many wonderful friendships this society has brought her, and for the joy and sense of community it brings to everyone involved. Previous roles include Lina (Singin' in the Rain), Matilda (All Shook Up), Mrs. Brice (Funny Girl), Erma (Anything Goes), and Little Girl (Witches of Eastwick). Aisling would like to thank the amazing cast, committee, and production team for their support and hard work. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Since joining 2014, Alison has been a regular cast member of KMS's yearly variety shows and musicals. She has played the part of Margaret in 9 to 5, Mrs Meeker in Funny Girl, Spit in Anything Goes and Mother Superior in Sister Act. Alison is delighted to be telling you the story of Joseph and his Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat alongside her fellow narrators and wishes all the cast and crew the very best for the run of this "amazing" show.

Susan made her debut with KMS in Behind the Curtain last November. She is thrilled to take on the role of one of the narrators in Joseph & The Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat. This production marks Susan's return to musical theatre having last been cast as Robin in Core Productions version of Godspell, a number of years ago. In her break from theatre, she maintained her vocal strength as a member of The Dublin Gospel Choir and The Line-Up Choir, singing at events in The Peacock Theatre, The Bord Gais Energy Theatre and Carnegie Hall, to name a few. Susan would like to thank all at KMS for a brilliant first year and wishes all the cast and production team a great show.

This is David's 5th show with Kilmacud MS having played Roscoe Dexter in Singin' in the Rain (2016), Duke in Disco Inferno (2022), Moonface Martin in Anything Goes (2023) & Curtis in Sister Act (2024). David has also played Jeremy Hopkins in Made in Dagenham (2022), Harold the Hermit in Young Frankenstein (2023) & Hertz Klinemann in Rock of Ages (2024) with Kilmacud MS. He is delighted to be involved in Joseph & hopes you enjoy the show, uh-huh, oh-yeah!

Ray returns for his 7th season with KMS, excited to step into the shoes (and colourful robes) of Joseph's eldest brother, Reuben. No stranger to the stage, Ray has brought characters like rough-around-the-edges Earl (All Shook Up), delightfully devious Franklin Hart (9 to 5), distinguished Elisha Whitney (Anything Goes), and ever-pious Monsignor O'Hara (Sister Act) to life. Ray is grateful for the support of the cast, production team, and committee. As Reuben might say: "Look, I didn't sign up to sing about a coat—I just wanted some peace and quiet!"

Dan recently joined KMS Last September 2024, excited to pursue his passion in musical theatre. Dan is eager to perform on stage and is very grateful for the cast, crew, production team and committee for making him feel so welcome from day one. Dan would also like to express much gratitude to his family and loved ones for all of their support.

Mary has been a member of Kilmacud Musical Society since 2015. Since then, she has performed regularly as a chorus member with KMS. She has previously played Missy Hart (9 to 5, KMS), Dippy (Anything Goes, KMS), and Ruth (Calendar Girls, dlr Mill Theatre Productions). Thrilled to play Judah (no ifs, no buts!!), Mary sincerely thanks the cast and production team for their amazing hard work and hopes you enjoy this technicolour show!

Billy had the great fortune to discover and join KMS some seventeen years ago. Not blessed with great talent, he has somehow survived and enjoyed his journey through a world far outside his comfort zone. He attributes this entirely to the wonderful KMS membership throughout the years. They keep him young! The role of Jacob suits him perfectly as he has little choreography to do! However, his twelve 'sons' keep him on his toes!
